Conducted On:	11-04-2022
No. of Students:	266

K.M.S. College of IT and Management Organized a sports meet with the collaboration of Sachi Gal Newspaper, Dasuya. They filled with energy during the dynamic Sports Meet 2022. The event promises to be a celebration of athleticism, teamwork, and camaraderie, bringing together participants from various disciplines for a memorable extravaganza. Led by College Principal Dr. Shabnam Kaur and Director Dr. Manav Saini, the event showcased a range of competitions, from skipping and kho-kho to basketball and chess.

The event encourages participation from both students and faculty, fostering a sense of unity and healthy competition within the college community. With events designed for various age groups and skill levels, everyone can find an opportunity to engage in the excitement.

The sports meet extends its reach beyond the college, welcoming families, friends, and sports enthusiasts from the city to join in the festivities. Spectators can look forward to witnessing thrilling displays of talent and determination.

Esteemed guests, including College Chairman Ch. Kumar Saini and Dr. Dilbagh Singh Hundal, graced the occasion. Participants, guided by College H.O.D. Er. Rajesh Kumar and dedicated staff engaged in spirited contests that highlighted teamwork and skill.

Beyond medals, the Sports Meet emphasized holistic development and healthy competition, underlining the college's commitment to nurturing well-rounded individuals. The event celebrated both physical prowess and the joy of teamwork.
